Get Your Installers ICPI-NCMA Certified

Help your local SRW installers grow their business, and make sure SRW projects are done right. Educate installers in your area through ICPI-NCMA education and certification. Become a resource and increase your exposure by sponsoring any of our three SRW Installer education and certification courses.

The SRW basic installer course is intended for contractors new to the business and for new employees of established installer companies who want to become ICPI-NCMA certified. Residential and Commercial Advanced Installer courses cover advanced SRW applications and installation techniques. Their performance impacts your business.

Sponsoring and hosting a course is easy. Follow the directions below to set up your course. ICPI-NCMA staff is available to help with any aspect of course sponsorship.

How to Sponsor a Course

1. Find an ICPI-NCMA authorized trainer. You can find a list at <https://ncma.org/srw-contractors/>. Select SRW Trainer in the dropdown box.
2. Notify ICPI-NCMA of course details using the form attached to this flyer.
3. ICPI-NCMA will send a confirmation, place your course on the online calendar, and send a link to order course materials. Standard shipping is free.
4. You determine the price for the class. Course materials are $25 per student and there is a fee of $130 per graded exam, for a total cost per student of $155. You set the price to cover your expenses.
5. The trainer teaches the class and returns all exams to ICPI-NCMA.
6. ICPI-NCMA will grade the exams and notify all students of their results.
7. ICPI-NCMA will send a report to the trainer with student results and class evaluations.
8. ICPI-NCMA will invoice the sponsor/trainer for the number of exams processed.
